THE GERMAN WAR.

The Prussians entered Saxony on the 15th in addition to an invasion across the Eastern and Western frontiers.

The King has issued a proclamation to his faithful people in which he relies upon their loyal co-operation. The King left Dresden to join the army, accompanied by Baron Brest.

The entry of the Prussions into Saxony was preceded by a formal declaration of war.

The Prussian Minister was about to leave Dresden.

The entry of the Austrians into Saxony was hourly expected.

The King of Saxony had withdrawn into Bohemia.

An engagement took place near Frankfort, between the Prussians and Hessians. One regiment of Hessians was almost annihilated.

The Prussians are pushing on to Bohemia.

The federal plan of operations is re-conquest of Holstein.

Oldenburg Anhalt had withdrawn from the Confederation.

It is declared that Italy has declared war against Austria.

Garibaldi will leave Como as soon as the volunteers are completely equipped. They will proceed to Bergamo and Brescia.

RUSSIA.

Gortschakoff states that upon the slightest violation of neutrality by France, Russia will abandon her present neutral attitude. The vanguards of a strong Russian army corps had arrived at Tamogrod.

Berlin, June 16th. A battle is expected near Frankfort.

Florence, June 19. The Italian government formally declared war against Austria yesterday.

WASHINGTON, July 1.

The following new revelation in regard to rinderpest, pleuro-pneumonia and cholera—

A communication has been received at the Department of State from our delegation at London, inclosing two pamphlets relating to certain experiments by Dr. James Dewor, of Kirkcaldy, for testing the efficiency of sulphurous acid gas as a disinfectant.

Results are cited which lead to the conviction that all of the above diseases, and some others by which the human family are afflicted, may be not only very much modified, but even wholly prevented by this means. The method of generating the gas is very simple and inexpensive.

It is only necessary to have a chaffer of red hot cinders, set a small crucible into them and drop a piece of sulpher atick the size of a man's thumb into it. This will fumigate a large cattle shed or byre in 20 minutes. The animals seem to enjoy it, and it acts as a tonic on man or beast. The shed or byre must be well ventilated during the fumigation as well as before and after it, and sound sanitary rules must be enforced in regard to cleanliness and the removal of dung heaps, during the prevalence of such epidemics as are above named.

The fumigation may be made according to the foregoing directions, four or five times a day; and not only is this treatment said to cure these fatal diseases, but it is stated that mange, ring-worms and lice have also vanished before it, and that grease heels in horses have also been cured by it, while several cases of pithises and tubercular affections of the lungs have been relieved in human beings.

The matter is worthy of study and experiment by our scientific and professional men. Dr. Dewor having liberally consented to the free use of his pamphlets, they will be sent by the Secretary of State to an appropriate committee in Congress with a view to their publication and distribution.

PEOPLE'S HOUSE,
White Mountains, July 2.

The Mountain Hotels are filling up rapidly. There were 800 guests at this house over Sunday, among whom were Major General Mitchell and friends.

BALTIMORE, July 2.

Gen. Stannard has resigned the charge of the Freedman's Bureau in this State, to take a collectorship at Burlington, N. J.

The following is the style of argument used by the Portland Advertiser and other "conservative" papers against giving civil and political rights to the freedmen:

The "civil rights" or negro equality bill, which has lately been passed over the President's veto is, it is said, to be amended shortly, imposing the following penalties on those who refuse to recognize "Cuffee" as abolitionism thinks he should be recognized.

For neglecting to step off the pavement as Sambo or Dinah passes, a fine of five dollars.

For neglecting to bow (as take off your hat to them, a fine of three dollars and a half.

For refusing to shake hands, eight dollars.

For refusing to kiss a wench when you meet her, seventy-six dollars and thirty days imprisonment.

For neglecting to nurse their babies in street cars or churches, thirty-six dollars and ten days imprisonment.

For refusing to see one home from church twelve dollars.

For passing them on the street without smiling, two dollars.

For asking them to work, ten dollars.

For refusing to invite them to your table with you, forty dollars.

For believing that you are as good as a negro, five hundred dollars and three years imprisonment.

For saying that you are better than a negro ten thousand dollars and fifty years imprisonment.

For refusing to marry one, imprisonment for life, and the confiscation of your property.

For saying the government was made for white men, six thousand dollars fine and fifteen years imprisonment.

For saying that white soldiers fought as bravely as did the "colored troops," two thousand dollars and three years imprisonment.

For refusing your daughter to any buck that wants her, to be hung by the thumbs until dead, and have your wife and children turned out on the highways to starve.

The fines in all cases to be handed over to the executive committee of the abolition party, and when the money is not to be had, he ordered to collect it in spoons, or whatever else they may be able to find.—[Exchange paper.

WHO FOUGHT THE BATTLES. The opinion which was industriously spread for political purposes during the war, that foreigners made up the bulk of the recruits for the Union Army, is firmly set in many minds, especially in the South and in Europe; Massachusetts in particular is taunted with the alleged substitution of foreign or colored recruits, although Gov. Andrew in his annual address for 1865, gave the figures which show that out of 153,000 men supplied by this State, only 4731 were colored and only 907 were foreign recruits. Rev. Dr. Bellows has made from official figures, a statement equally gratifying as to the materials of the ranks of the whole Union. But the prejudice will nevertheless be long-lived.

WHAT A LADY WOULD DO WITH JEFF DAVIS. A Washington correspondent of the Alta California says:

It was my fortune to hear a lady of this city express herself in conversation in this relation a few evenings ago, at a party.

"Do you know what I would do with Davis if I had supreme power?" asked she of a gentlemen with whom she was talking.

"No," said he, "but I should be very glad to hear."

"Well," she replied, "I would not have him tried for treason, for that would be to run the risk of his escaping punishment by some technicality, and could only end in making him a martyr. My plan would be to make him ridiculous in the eyes of the civilized world."

"How would you do that askeek the gentleman?"

"Simply in this way: I would call a great public assemblage together. At that assemblage Jeff. Davis should be in attendance clad in the costume in which he was captured. I would then address him, recapitulating the character of his crimes and dwelling on their enormity. At the close I would say that the people of the United States, too magnanimous to wreak their vengeance on such a miserable creature, had empowered me in their name to say to the culprit—'Wayward sister, depart in peace!'

FEARFUL TORNADO IN BUFFALO. The Buffalo Courier of the 26th ult. contains some additional particulars of the furious tornado which visited that city at 4 P. M. of that day:

How to characterize it we hardly know. It was a gale, a hurricane, a whirlwind, a tornado, a cyclone—it was any or all of these; a wild, wicked, relentless tempest, which seemed bent on the utter destruction of the city. It came almost directly from the west, with a slight inclination to the awnings and signs, and everything that lay loose on the sidewalks. Horses took fright and ran in various directions, much to the injury of the vehicles attached, many of which were overturned and wicked. Then chimneys came crashing down; roofs took flight; windows were forced in or otherwise damaged; buildings were blown down, and large trees were uprooted as if they had been but weeds in the hands of the gardener. For half an hour the storm raged, and strong buildings trembled and devastation became broadcast.

The names of the killed and probably fatally wounded, have been given in our dispatches.

Nearly half of the upper-light roof of the Niagara Falls Depot gave way to the storm; the tower on St. Joseph's Cathedral followed suit; and the wood work of St. John's Church was swept almost entirely away.

The U. S. Express stable had its front wall blown down; and the roof of the west wing of the Foundling Asylum was forced in. The western half of the Kremlin Hall roof was swept away, and the heavy timbers, the light wood, and tin covering are swept in heavy beam almost every direction. A heavy beam found its way into the roof of Capt. Dobbins' house on Niagara Street, through which it crashed. The rear part of the house suffered considerably, but fortunately no one was hurt. Mr. F. T. Bloomer's yard was nearly filled with fallen timbers, and the tin roofing was swept into the alley between Eagle and Niagara streets, and lies there twisted and rent as if a giant had crumpled it in his fingers.

Telegraph poles in South Australia are made of mahogony, at a cost of about four dollars and a half apiece, because other wood will not stand the climate and burial in the ground.

RELIGIOUS NEWS. Rev. A. L. Long, Methodist missionary to Bulgaria, arrived in Boston June 21st, by the steamer China. He comes by permission to aid the American Bible Society in electrotyping plates for publishing the Scriptures in the old Sclavic and Bulgarian languages. He speaks hopefully of the prospects of the Bulgarian Mission.

—Rev. Wm. H. Fenn of Manchester, N. H., has accepted the call extended to him by the High St. Church and Parish, and will enter upon the duties of his pastorate as soon as a dwelling-house can be obtained for his family. His salary is to be $4000.—[Press.

—The First Parish Society at Yarmouth propose to erect a new church next season on the spot on which the present one stands. Already $10,000 has been subscribed to the fund, and about $6000 more is needed.

—The Press says that Rev. J. E. Walton and family left on the steamer for Boston Friday evening. Prior to leaving, some of his friends in the Third Parish made up and presented him with a purse of $225. He takes a residence, for the present, at North Adams, Mass.

—Rev. George W. Homan of Fort Edwards, N. Y., a native of Maine, has accepted a unanimous call to become pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lewiston, and will enter upon his duties in July.

—The Press says that the venerable Father Cleaveland, whose ninety-fourth anniversary was observed last week, preached both morning and afternoon, in the House of Correction, South Boston. Is there another instance in the country where a clergyman of more than four-score and ten has preached all day on Sunday?

—The Second Baptist Society of Thomaston have been enlarging their church by an addition 29 by 17 feet, which will give room for a new organ which has been purchased at a cost of $1650.

—Among the notables present at the Universalist Convention at Auburn, last week, was the venerable "Father Stetson" of Brunswick, the oldest living minister in the denomination: "His presence," says an exchange, "was exceedingly gratifying to his many friends, who gave the veteran patriarch and soldier of the cross, now ninety years old, a very hearty greeting."

—The Methodist Centenary subscriptions from the first of the year to the middle of May are reported to be $653,835.73.

THE GREAT EUROPEAN WAR. The Providence Journal says the fear which has made Europe tremble for, weeks, was only too well founded. The great war, the end of which no man can foretell, the suffering in which no imagination can conceive, has actually begun. Prussia in haughty rage has thrown down the glove to Austria and the whole German confederation, and Saxony and Hanover are shaking beneath the heavy tread of her troops. No war which has taken place since Napoleon was born a prisoner to St. Helena, was followed by such consequences as this may be. While our hearts swell with compassion for the wives who are to be widowed, for the children who are to be orphaned, for the nations who are to be scourged as with fire, and burdened for generations with almost intolerable taxation let us trust that He who ruleth over nations will educe lasting good from this calamity, and even use it for the advancement of the great cause of human liberty.

The concentration by Russia of a hundred thousand troops on the frontier of Austria is giving great interest to the question whether she will take any part in the coming contest, and if so, on which side. In the earlier discussions on the probability of war, it seemed to be taken for granted that Russia would, like England, remain neutral. It was said that she was pushing on her conquests in Asia, and had too little interest in the European quarrel to take any part in it. But this is by no means certain. The form which the controversy is taking, and the movements of Russian troops, both lead us to deem it highly probable that she will do an active participant in the war.

The manifest aim of Bismarck is to make Prussia a great naval, as well as military power. He wishes to get possession of all the ports he can obtain. Does any one suppose that Russia will look meekly on, and see the strength of Prussia in the Baltic largely increased? Will she allow Prussia to contest with her the gateway to the Northern Ocean? Is it to be presumed that she desires to see the power of either Prussia or Austria in Germany materially enlarged? Must she not rather prefer to have them balanced against each other? It is rumored that the Czar has already made a secret treaty with the Austrian Emperor, promising him help in certain contingencies. If that is really so, the powers which have been calculating on an easy work in crushing Austria, will have to revise their calculations.—But what a war it would be, with France, Prussia and Italy pitted against Austria and Russia! Moreover if Russia is involved in the struggle, who shall guarantee that the Turkish question will not arise in such form that England will be compelled to come to the rescue of her ward, the Sultan? And so all Europe will be wrapped in one general conflagration of war. One shudders to think of the horrors which are, perhaps, awaiting Europe.

Then, too, it must be remembered that, back of Kings and Emperors, however well organized is the despotism by which they are now marching their subjects up to the cannon's mouth to settle the quarrels of ambitious ministers, is the people. The word people has not meant much on the continent till recent years. How many centuries have the people been a dumb, inert mass. But they have begun to have aims, feelings, wills of their own. The shrewest sovereign of Europe has to honor them so far as to profess to rule only by their sanction. Who shall say that up out of this vortex of war shall not rise revolutions, terrible as death to unjust monarchs and sometimes to good ones? Can Austria, for instance, rely on Hungary, whom Francis Joseph has been trying to appease, or will she have domestic war in the very centre of her domain? The Hungarian leaders are already warning their followers to be prepared for any opportunity. The patient Prussians have borne so much of Bismarck and the King that we can hardly conceive of their trying again the experiment of 1848. But who can tell what the vicissitudes of a war may lead them to do? One is bewildered at thinking of the possible consequences of the fearful contest, in which Europe is now engaging. Let us hope that such immense suffering as must be endured will be rewarded in the end by the attainment of new liberty for the millions, who are fitted to enjoy it.

A LETTER UPON RECONSTRUCTION, from Geo. M. Weston, Esq., of some four columns, appears in the Times of yesterday. Mr. Weston takes ground against that clause of the constitutional amendment which disqualifies certain classes of rebels from holding national or State offices, and also objects to a portion of the first clause, as placing too great a power in the hands of the Federal Judiciary by referring to it all cases of infringement of the civil rights clause of the constitution. A proof of the letter was sent us yesterday afternoon, with the liberty to publish it if we desired. The letter is addressed to the New York Tribune, and as it has now been placed before this public, it will not be necessary for us to occupy so much space as we should be obliged to in its re-publication.

We all have more or less objection, one way or another, to the constitutional amendment as it now stands, and may wish it had been differently presented; but as it has already gone to the people, and cannot be recalled by Congress, and as it embraces all the guaranties which we can now obtain for the future safety of the country, we are willing to waive our objections and take the amendment as a whole. It is—not regarding those urged by Mr. Weston as so vital or fatal as he believes them to be. It may be regarded, perhaps, as a choice of evils—the only practical alternative to its adoption being the free admission of representatives from the late rebel States without any present qualification at least that over-representation, and with no absolute constitutional declaration of citizenship for the freedman. The exclusion of leading rebels from office in this country is quite a different thing from what it would be in Europe.—Here it is a matter of prudence and even safety to the country—for these rebels, if returned to Congress or placed in State offices, will have a powerful, perhaps controlling influence in the government of the country—will be, in fact, that government if they can obtain northern allies enough to help them while in Europe, conquered enemies of the governments may sit in the national assemblies, and be comparatively powerless. Those who would exclude them here would do so not as a measure of punishment or proscription, but as a measure of safety to the country.

Speaking of the call for a Johnsonian National Convention in August, the Boston Advertiser says: 'The call will be caluminated by what is read between the lines more than by what is openly expressed in it. The signers, as everybody knows, mean not only to insist upon the rights of the States under the Constitution, but to demand that the Constitution shall not be amended in the method laid down in that instrument itself, and when they declare the exclusion of properly elected representatives to be revolutionary, they mean also to declare that those now claiming admission were so elected, and that Congress cannot inquire into the condition of the States which they assume to represent, or into the ability of those States in their present condition to take position intelligently and with safety to themselves and others. To these positions few will agree who are outside of the democratic party and who do not sympathize with the present effort of that party to re-establish its old alliance with Southern sectionalism. We have sometimes seen the government in its relations with the conquered rebellion compared to a man who has a wolf by the ears. The great republican party, and the majority of the Northern people, do not maintain any more than Mr. Doolittle and his friends, that it is desirable to continue forever to hold the animal in this way; but they will not agree with these gentlemen that the government has not the right to determine when it can let go with safety, and to take precautionary measures against the possible consequences of letting go.'

It is said August Belmont made over two millions by the late rise in gold.—[Ex.

Yes, and the consumers of the country have to pay more than that by the rise in prices. All this to the end that his and other plethoric fortunes may be still further swelled. The poor are pinched harder by their poverty, in order that men like Belmont may roll deeper in luxury, and extravagance and fashion run faster riot in the land. The gold gambling creates as much distress in the country as the infamous speculation and monopoly in bread stuffs, coal and other necessaries of life. We sometimes wish for a despotic hand to crush out the "gold boards" and other gambling concerns of our great cities. As it is now, the daily quotations of gold affect the prices of everything.

It will be some weeks before the full returns can be given, and on the receipts up to last night, the Treasury department estimates the receipts for the fiscal year ending to-morrow to be, exclusive of loans, as follows:

Internal Revenue,	$315,000,000
Customs,	170,000,000
Public Lands,	675,000
Miscellaneous,	66,000,000
Total,	$551,675,000

We take the following political gossip from the Washington correspondence of the Cincinnati Gazette:

"Some of the most thoughtful men in Congress believe that one of the chief aims of the President's last message was to administer a rebuke to Mr. Seward. It is known although it was charged publicly by some of Mr. Johnson's friends, that Mr. Seward had refused to transmit the constitutional amendment to the States unless it was first submitted to the President, that he really showed unusual promptness in dispatching it, sending certified copies off immediately upon reaching his office, and so is supposed without consulting the President.

There is the very best of authority for saying that, at a meeting of the Johnson Club, in Springfield, Illinois, a short time since, an autograph letter was read from President Johnson, telling them to preserve their efforts, and promising that as soon as Congress adjourned the offices should be placed in the hands of men who supported him. That just for the present he was keeping quiet, so as not to excite the suspicion of Congress. All indications now point to the formation of an office holders' party. With this it is supposed that the North can be partly corrupted and partly held in check, while the South will be encouraged to take no step toward the Congressional plan of restoration."

President Johnson's friends expect that the Philadelphia Convention will be a success, and they profess to have assurances that every State will be respectably represented. Hon. Geo. Ashmun, it is said, will head the delegation from Massachusetts, and among others expected from that State are ex-Governor Clifford, Generals Devens, and Hon. Charles R. Train.

The "policy" men in Maine assert that they can defeat Mr. Lynch in the Portland District if Sion Bradbury can be made Collector.—[Special to the Boston Journal.

THE QUADRILATERAL. The Parish journal says that Magnan recently expressed the following opinion on the famous Quadrilateral.

"Had I the honor of being ordered to attack Venice, I should not even have thought to this traditional hobgoblin. I should sail the city from the sea. I have ascertained personally, there is water enough in the lagune to do this. I should be certain to take it with the flatboats and gunboats. As soon as Venice was in my possession, the four fortresses would fall into my hands like apples."

NO EXTRA SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE. It is not probable that there will be an extra session of the Legislature as was rumored some weeks since. The ratification of the constitutional amendment, and the work of perfecting the liquor law will therefore fall upon the next General Court.—Boston Journal.

An Effectual Worm Medicine.

BROWN'S VERMIFUGE COMFITS,

Or Worm Lozenges. Much sickness, undoubtedly, with children and adults, attributed to other causes is occasioned by worms. The "VERMIFUGE COMFITS," although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be safe and sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children.

CHILDREN HAVING WORMS require immediate attention, as neglect of the trouble often causes prolonged sickness.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS IN CHILDREN are often overlooked. Worms in the stomach and bowels cause irritation, which can be removed only by the use of a sure remedy. The combinat on of ingredients used in making Brown's "Vermifuge Comfits" is such as to give the best possible effect with safety.

An Invaluable Spring Medicine.

DR. J. W. POLAND'S

HUMOR DOCTOR.

This excellent medicinal remedy was first prepared by Dr. P. in 1847, and was then employed with great success in expelling humors from the blood; but in 1848, an Indian friend, who was quite celebrated as a physician, especially in the treatment of humors, suggested some important improvements, which were adopted, and which have made it (so the people say,) the very best remedy for all kinds of humors known to the family. This preparation is composed wholly of vegetables, among which are Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock, Burdock, Noble Pine, Mandrake, Senna and Bloodroot. Suffice it to say, the "Doctor" is used in hundreds of families as a general medicine. Unlike many other popular remedies, it is very grateful to the taste.

WASHINGTON, July 2.

Representative Clark of Kansas received a telegram from Leavenworth dated to-day, that Senator James H. Lane shot himself through the head last night. The papers say he cannot recover. This intelligence soon became known in both Houses of Congress, and excited much comment.

WASHINGTON, July 2.

The latest accounts state that Senator Lane is still alive; but there are no hopes of his recovery.

NEW YORK, July 2.

A special despatch to the Times from Leavenworth says—

The cause assigned for Senator Lane's suicide was the fear of exposure and expulsion from the Senate.

HALIFAX, July 2.

The steamship Cuba, from Liverpool 23d, Queenstown 25th, arrived here this afternoon.

The steamship Persia from New York arrived on the 23d.

THE CONTINENTAL WAR.

Military news of importance has yet been received.

Preparations for the great struggle continue night and day, but the main armies have not yet met.

It is stated that the Union States, whose troops are congregated at Frankfort, are discouraged at the aspect of affairs, and are greatly disposed to complain that Prussia has thrust them into danger before she was able to protect them.

It is rumored that Bavaria hesitates for the present to take an active part in the war on the ground that Austria is not the aggressor.

The Pall Mall Gazette says—

"There is a growing belief that Austria is about to concentrate all her strength in Italy to secure supremacy in Germany, whether such crossing of swords as will satisfy her honor, will surrender Venice if the Italians are willing to come to an amicable understanding.

The Times, speaking of the apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes that the latter has no doubt have some reason for her apparent inactivity. Their generals perceive their troops eager, and their obvious interest would seem to be a successful opening of the campaign.

The Daily News thinks the inactivity of Austria has been imposed under sagacious counsels.

The Prussian troops entered Austriatn territory at Odensburg, in Upper Silesia, on the 22d.

The movements of Gen. Benedek are kept secret.

Little more than reconnoissances appear to have been made by the Austrians in Bohemia.

The Russians continue to fortify themselves at Dresden.

Hanover had surrendered to the Prussians.

Vienna papers assert that the Saxon fortress of Pillan has been destroyed by the Austrians in consequence of the refusal of the Saxons to pay war contributions.

The Russians have taken the Elector of Hesse, his Minister of War prisoners, and the latter to the fortress of Minden.

The Italian army has succeeded in joining Garibaldi.

It is reported that the Hanoverian army has effected a junction with the Federal troops.

The Federal army corps around Frankfort is reported to sixty thousand men.

The headquarters of Prince Alexander is stated to be transferred to Frankfort.

The Oldenburg Minister at the Diet has recalled.

The Austrians have declared Venice and Venetia in a state of siege.

The Austrian outposts at Apaizo were attacked by Italian volunteers on the 23d. Several shots were exchanged.

It is officially denied in Berlin that Prussia has ordered conscription in the countries which have entered.

MINISTERIAL CRISIS.

The Times states that the Queen will not return from Scotland till the 26th. It is therefore expected that explanations cannot be given to Parliament until that day.

The Times thinks the dissolution of Parliament possible but improbable.

The Star thinks the prospect of a dissolution clear, and believes the Queen has no objection.

Public meetings in all the large towns are being held in support of the Government Reform.

The cattle disease has again broken out in England.

Returns show a large decrease in England.

The Duke of Edinburg was paying a three days visit to Liverpool, and performing sundry public services, among other things inaugurating new docks.

FRANCE.

The Emperor's letter says—

Peace has preference and best wishes.—The Emperor on his hopes must be also that side, having positively declared France would not engage in war except under a decisive state of things, and has grounds for believing no belligerent will desire to assume responsibility of provoking it by creating such position of affairs.

The Bank of France returns show an increase in specie of nearly fourteen and a half millions.

ITALY.

Victor Emanuel left Florence for camp on the 21st and arrived at Cremona on the same day.

Prince Carignan had arrived at Florence and assumed the government, and was well received.

The declaration of war against Austria has caused great rejoicing throughout Italy.

The Chamber of Deputies had adopted by a large majority a bill granting extraordinary financial powers to government.

The Ministers of Marine had notified the abolition of the capture of merchant ships of the enemy not carry contraband of war. Austria has consented the practice for reciprocity in that respect.

DENMARK.

The French Minister at private audience presented a letter to the King of Denmark from the Emperor Napoleon. The Monitor says the letter had no political character.

SPAIN.

The bill granting extraordinary powers to the government is not expected to be carried by a majority of five or six votes.

BOMBAY.

Private telegrams dated June 17th have been received.

The news of the failure of the Agra Bank was known, but no bad impression had been created thereby.

It is believed the council of India had received telegrams to the 20th, and that advices are extremely favorable.

The following is the news per steamer Damascus, of June 21st.

The Damascus left Liverpool June 21 and Londonderry 22d.

There is no exciting war news as yet.

Indications increase that the first shock will be in Silesia.

The London Times of the 21st says:

Although the campaign between the main armies, Prussia and Austria, has now fairly begun, we have no news of actual encounters. Across the whole breadth of Germany from the frontier of Poland to the Rhine, the forces of Austria and the States in alliance with her have been mustering for extended series of operations, but as yet the actual gains have been on the side of their adversary. The Austrians maintain a profound silence as to their intentions. We only know that Field Marshal Benedek intends to take the offensive, and that re-conquests and the occupation of Silesia are avowed as the purpose of the Austrian campaign.

A late telegram via Prague states that the Austrians crossed the frontier into Silesia on the 19th.

In Italy the Austrians expect to be attacked on three sides. At Venice by the Italian fleet, on the side of the Tyrol by Garibaldi, and lastly by Gen Cialdini, who will cross the Po.

All Garibaldians who were at Como had followed their commander to the Lecco.

Victor Emmanuel issued a stirring manifesto to the Italians. He recapitulates the effects of the last war with Italy; regrets that for supreme reasons the noble province of Venetia was then allowed to remain in the hands of Austria. A favorable opportunity has now arisen to accomplish the independence of Venetia from Austrian rule. He charges Austria with having assumed a hostile and threatening attitude on the Italian frontier to disturb the pacific task of the reorganization of Italy. He replied by again taking up arms, but nevertheless showed his desire for peace by accepting the proposals for a conference. Austria having refused, affords a fresh proof that if she confides in her strength, she does not rely fully upon the goodness of her cause and of her right. The manifesto concludes with patriotic declarations an assurance that Italy has the sympathy of Europe, and hands over the government of the State to the Prince of Carignan while he again takes up the Eagles of Gaeta.

Victor Immanuel also issued a proclamation to the National Guard, confiding in them the guardianship of the public security.

Declaration of war against Austria was issued on the 20th from headquarters of the Italian army at Cremona. It is addressed by Gen Cialdini to Archduke Albert, commanding the Austrian army in Venetia.

It recounts Italy's grievance as regards Venetia, and notifies that hostilities will commence in three days, unless the Archduke declined to accept the delay.

It was reported that the Prussian vanguard would would arrive near Frankfort on the 21st.

A Hanoverian ship had been captured by a Prussian man-of-war.

A son of the Elector of Hesse had been taken prisoner by Prussians.

Hamburg will be occupied by the Prussian corps.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Nothing positive has transpired with regard to the ministerial crisis.

The Morning Post says—

The Queen has telegraphed her willingness to accept the tendered resignation of the ministers.

The Daily News takes it for granted that the Ministers will resign, because the Lord Chancellor incidentally stated in Court that he should probably cease to hear causes after the 23d.

It supposes that the Queen will send for the Earl of Derby.

The Times gives a rumor that Earl Russell and Mr Gladstone advise a dissolution of Parliament.

The London Gov.

Several frigates are being got ready to strengthen the British squadron in the Mediterranean.

It is reported that sixty guineas premium is now being paid at Lloyds on the ship Monarch of the Sea, which sailed from Liverpool, March 28th for New York.

FRANCE.

The Paris correspondent of the Times believes that in certain political circles of Paris it is apprehended that the Prussian Government has not so much faith in the absolute neutrality of France as may be desired.

The Paris Bourse was steady at 67f 65c.

SPAIN.

It is officially notified that the Spanish squadron had been ordered home from the Pacific.

Three Spanish vessels are reported to have been destroyed by the Peruvian iron-clads off the River Plate.

LATER.

Queenstown, June 23d—The Italian army crossed the Mincio on the 23d inst. unopposed.

A slight collision between the Prussians and Austrians occurred in Saxony, in the former retired.

Nothing authentic is known concerning the communication made by France to Austria.

The Vienna Presse says France denies that she has made an agreement with Prussia or Italy, but maintains full liberty of action.

If Austria does not menace the existing Kingdom of Italy if successful and does not advance beyond Milan, France will not interfere but assert in the conclusion of a definite treaty of peace, and will further propose that Italy pay an indemnity for Austria's denumeration of the fruits of victory.

St Petersburg advices deny that a movement of troops has been made, and says that non-intervention continues to be the policy of Russia.

A military revolt broke out in Madrid on the 23d. The insurgents furnished the populace with arms and threw up barricades.—After an obstinate resistance the insurgents surrendered.

Gen. Prim has been arrested at Bayonne by the French authorities.

The London Observer says a motion will be made in the House of Commons expressing confidence in the ministry and promising a favorable consideration of the reform bill at the next session, if the Ministers do not announce the dissolution of Parliament.

GALVESTON, Texas, July 2.

Flakes' Bulletin extra, of last evening, says—

A despatch has been received at the headquarters of Gen. H. E. Wright, in Galveston, from General Getty, commanding at Brownsville, dated June 24th, which states that the right bank of the Rio Grande is now in possession of the Republican forces of the Government of Mexico.

A battle between Escobado and Mejia on the 15th inst., near Camargo, resulted in the total rout of the latter and capture of a train of merchandise.

Bagdad was abandoned by the Imperialists on the night of the 18th.

The city of Matamoras capitulated on the 23d to commissioners appointed by General Carrajal, Gen. Mejia with the Imperial troops embarking between the hours of three and four o'clock p. m., under the protection U. S. flag.

The most liberal terms were granted to the Imperialists.

The city was given up without bloodshed, pillage or plunder, and is now under the command of Gen. De L'Garcia.

There has been no violation of the neutrality laws.

Thirty-Ninth Congress.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, July 2.

Senate.

The special committee on the condition of the Mississippi levees reported a bill making appropriations for their repairs.

The Secretary of the Treasury in a communication states that he was informed that Thomas Elmore, Collector of Mobile, has always been opposed to the rebellion from the start.

Bills were passed to inquire into the title of certain lands in Benecia, and to pay volunteers called out at Cincinnati to repel Kirby Smith's invasion.

Mr Wilson made a report from the conference committee on the Freedmen's Bureau, bill, which was agreed to, and the bill goes to the President.

The report sustains the Senate proposition relative to South Carolina lands.

The Senate then went into executive session.

Adjourned.

House.

Several bills and resolutions were introduced and referred.

A resolution was passed, reciting certain outrages committed upon citizens of Maine in Georgia, and calling on the President to inform the House if the personal rights of citizens are sufficiently protected in all the States, and if further legislation is necessary to give him sufficient power to protect all loyal citizens in all the States.

A resolution was passed appointing a joint committee to inquire into the expenditures in all civil services of the government, and report such retrenchments in salaries and offices as may be deemed necessary.

The tariff bill was then taken up in committee of the whole.

Mr Banks introduced a bill establishing conditions for the admission of the States of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Canada East and Canada West, and for the organization of territorial governments for New Foundland, Prince Edwards Island and Columbia.

Read twice, and referred to the committee on foreign affairs.

Mr Morrill gave notice that to-morrow he would ask to have an evening session to finish the tariff bill.

Adjourned.

The Hartford papers tell a story in regard to an English fortune of $35,000,000, the estate of a deceased Englishman named Thomas Church:

Last fall the attention of Mr. and Mrs. Ell Walker, residing at Maple avenue, Hartford, was attracted by an advertisement for the heirs of the said Mr. Church. Investigation proved that Mr. Halsey Church, father of Mrs. Walker, formerly of East Haddam, and now living at an advanced age in Stockbridge, Mass., was the sole heir and entitled to the property, which is partly in government securities and partly in two large estates, one on the Thames at London.

Mr Chesebi, who is by his extreme age unfitted for business, gave Mr. Walker a power of attorney to act for him in the matter's returns the property over to his children, by stipulating that he shall have a home with them in his declining years. Ex-Gov. Chas. H. Seymour has been the legal adviser of the family, and papers have been obtained which establish their title to the large estate beyond question and they will leave for England sometime next month to take possession of it. Mrs. Walker has one brother and one sister in Connecticut, and one sister in Ohio. The property will be divided between the four children. Mr. Walker has been working for some time in Colt's Armory.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

THE FLORAL CONCERT.—Mr. Wilder's Floral Concert at Norombega Hall last evening was very fully attended, the capacious hall being packed to its utmost. Several hundred little singers, decorated with flowers and evergreens, took part in the entertainment, the sight of whom richly repaid the audience for their attendance. The singing, considering the immense number of children—some of them hardly larger than a fat man's fist—was excellent, and gave ample evidence of Mr. Wilder's skill as a teacher. The exactness with which the "fairies," "gypsies," "zephyrs," "queens," &c., went through their evolutions, gave equal evidence of his patience and discipline. It was an exceedingly interesting affair, and will long be pleasantly recollected by parents and children.

RUSSELL'S UNION MOWER.—Mr. Eben French, as will be seen by advertisement, has the above named machine for sale at Norombega Market. It is recommended as a good machine, and being the Junior or smaller size, is well calculated to supply the demand existing in many parts of the country for a single mower. Though very light of draft, it mows a swath over four feet in width.

—Slabs of Brownville slate are being laid down in the Probate office at the Court House as floorings in place of the brick or cement pavements heretofore used. We think the improvement a good one.

—The Lewiston Journal says: We understand that Rev. William N. Willian, of Bangor, has been engaged to take charge of Trinity Church (Episcopal) in this city, until Oct. 1st next. Regular services will hereafter be held at Trinity Chapel.

A RUM MISTAKE.—On Friday evening evening last a despatch was received by officer McLaughlin to arrest, on the train from the west, Mr. Alexander McKay. He proceeded to the Hermon crossing and took McKay into his custody. The charge was that the prisoner had stolen about $100 from one George S. Rounday, of China. Officer McLaughlin took McKay to Waterville by the return train on Saturday morning, when it turned out that Roundy, who had over indulged in the ardent, had entrusted his money to McKay for safe keeping; that McKay had returned it to him, as he sobered off; that he again got his logs tangled, and had left it with a livery stable man for security, and forgotten the last fact, recollecting only, that he had let McKay have it, and hence made the charge of stealing against McKay, who is a worthy man.—Whether the result of liquor or any other cause, such proceedings should meet with adequate compensation at the hands of the law.

Mr. EDITOR,—It is not often that we see a good joke played off, where all concerned are disposed to take it in good part. It appears that a Mr. Emery, of Bucksport, is the inventor of a fly-trap, and to avail himself of a new mode of advertising, has placed a very large sign with a fine painting of the trap on it, on the storehouse situated on the steamboat wharf, which attracts considerable attention and occasions much comment by passengers on the boats—each having a new act, of course. For several years there has been upon the building a sign to prevent vessels from stopping at the wharf, (it having been exclusively used as a steamboat landing) which reads—"No vessels allowed here." The fly-trap sign was placed directly over this sign. After it had been up a number of days, some wag nailed a piece of paper over the word "vessels," and placed the word "flies" thereon, which makes it read "No Flies allowed here"—causing a grin to take possession of every beholder.—Emery takes it as a joke, well put, we understand, and on his part 'tis a paying one.

—Morris Brothers, Pell and Trowbridge's Minstrel Troupe—the whole company and no mistake—are announced to give concerts here on Monday and Tuesday evenings the 9th and 10th of July. This troupe are prime favorites with Bangor people, and the simple announcement is sufficient to fill Norombega Hall to its utmost capacity.

—During a circus performance in Bethel on Wednesday last, a row was inaugurated which lasted all the afternoon. Ruin was at the bottom of it.

Forty thousand dollars have been raised for a home for soldiers' orphans in Illinois. Shall Maine, who was second to none in responding to the calls for men, be behind her sister States in providing for the wants of these the principal sufferers of the war.—[Times.

—The Supreme Court in York county, after a session of five weeks, adjourned the 22d inst. The Biddeford Journal says twelve verdicts were rendered in civil cases by the jury and in four cases submitted to them, they were unable to agree. Eighteen divorces were decreed, two gentlemen admitted to the bar, one foreigner naturalized and about one hundred and twenty-five cases which were on the docket, disposed of by non-suit, default and agreement of parties. This seems to have been a working session.

—The Houlton Times says that during a late thunder-storm, the barn belonging to Gideon Fletcher, Jr., was struck by lightning and destroyed. Two horses in the barn were killed and burned up, together with 10 tons of hay and 300 bushels of oats, two wagons, harnesses, &c.

—Hon. Sidney Perham has thrown the appointment of midshipman from the 2d District open to competition. Candidates for appointment will be examined at Auburn on the 11th of July.

ONE OF THE CLIPPERS.—The Portland Star says that Mr. Elias D. Staples of Eliot, Me., has built a boat of the following dimensions: length, 30½ feet, greatest width 17 inches, depth amidships 6 inches, depth at stem and stern, 4 inches, weight 41½ pounds. When loaded, draws 2½ inches of water.

—The Oxford Democrat says a handsome little steamer has been built and is now running on Umbagog Lake and Magolloway river. It is a side-wheel boat with a new engine, cabin neat, and the upper deck convenient for pleasure parties.

—Mary Ann Pegan, a servant girl of 15, was beaten by the infant mistress in Philadelphia, and jumped from a three-story window to avoid the Jezebel, breaking her ankle.

FRANKFORT VESSEL LOST.—We learn from the Boston Daily Advertiser that schr R H Perkins, (of Frankfort) Lane master, from Bangor for St Pierre, Miq., with a cargo of lumber, brick and lime, foundered on the 20 inst., in lat. 43° 10', lon 66° 30'—all hands saved. Capt. Lane and crew publicly tender their thanks to Capt Bearse and crew of schr Wm. B. Consul at Halifax, who promptly provided for them in their destitute condition.

—The Press says it continues to receive occasional reports of disease among the cattle in York county, but they are of a character so contradictory that it is impossible to decide upon the nature of the disease. A few intelligent judges pronounce it the genuine riderpest, while others equally well informed, declare it nothing more than pneumonia.

DROWNED.—Two boys aged about 7 years—one the son of the late Freeman Chamberlain, of Wolfboro, N. H., and the other a son of Charles Thompson of South Berwick—were drowned at South Berwick this morning.—They were bathing, when one of them accidentally stepped off into deep water and seized his companion. The Chamberlain lad was on a visit to South Berwick with his mother.—[Star.

The Bachelor Dreams.

BY NASBY AT CONGRESS.

The world is dreary, and I'm growing old,
Wife nor bairn makes glad my chamber cold;
The winter wanes not with its icy chill;
Yea, twilight gloams around me—hope and power
Depart, like scent and color from a flower—
Yet, where I sit, sweet music floats to me;
'Tis the falling, falling of a silver shower
Around a forest tree!

Ah! can I hear the scented rain intone?
Can I hear the leaves that sing, and sigh?
Or hear I but the lamentation and moan
Of busy folk that hurry dark'ly by?
Nay—for a white hand lies in mine, sweet eyes
Shine on me, and a happy maiden cries!
Nay! for my blood stain flows fresh and free—
To the falling, falling, of the shower that sighs
Around the forest tree!

And can it be so many years ago,
Since I clasped her neath the leaves, that Summ—
mer night?
And were there words of parting, words of woe?
Sits she among the children far away?
Can she hear the sweet and melancholy sound
Doth she see the shining dewdrops on the ground?
Doth she love the lovers and the sound of me?
To the falling, falling, of the rain around
The murmurous forest tree.

The city closes round me, I am old,
Yet 'tis melody from the country lanes I hear;
The wintry season cometh with its cold,
The hearth is dark, and the end of all is near;
Yet love, the city feeds with its pain!
The cold, chill fires is drowned in my brain!
And my life is flowing earthward, fast and free—
To the falling, falling, of a Summer rain
Around a forest tree!

CONFEDRIT X ROADS (which is in the Statt uv Kentucky), May 27, 1866.

To His Excellency the Dispenser uv Post Orfices, ANDREW JOHNSON, President uv the United Statea:

In akkordance with your esteemed request, dated the 25th and received this morning, I to wunst proceed to make deo inquiry ez to the workin of the Freedmen's Burow and the condishun uv the Afrikin citizens of Amerikin descent in this vicinity. The fact that a Ablishner still holds the Post Orfice at the Corners, (which place by the way, I have been solicited to accept,) interfered materially with the bizness I had in hand, I too once tooted the horn, az iz the custom when we hev religius servis, and called my congregashun together. They cum, runnin in from the different grocaries and bore another difficulty unsood. The grocery keepers wanted to know what we wuz a going tu hev meetin on week dayz for? They wuz willin to shut up door in meetin time on Sunday, ez they respected the Church, and it give them time to sweep out the terbakker, et settery, but they'd be d——d if they wuz agoin to hev the people pulled away from their nourishment on week dayz. I succeeded in pasifying em, and, went in at wunst to examine the leadin citizens. Their test money is as follows:

CAPTIN SKELEER

wuz a nigger owner afore the war, and during the late fratsidle struggle wuz with Ginl Forest at Fort Pillow. Hez bed much experience with niggers. Heaves enuff to be adapted tu the climit uv Kentucky, and much more able to stand the hot sun than the whites. When they wuz slaves I never knowed em to refooze to work—know they alluz did work becoz he generally stood over em with a nigger whip. Since they hev bin free hez notist a change, not much uv a change, until the Nigger Burow established. Before that they'd take sich wages ez you chose to give em—since then the d——d heathern will stand out, hout ez the white men do, and won't work at all unless you meet their views which made a heap of trouble and materially retarded the development uv the country. The Burow had corrupted the fomale niggers, ez they had all bin legally married by the chaplains to the men they'd lived with, and wuz so set on livin with em that there's no voose uv you trying to get a house wench unless you took her husband also. His wife wuz now doin degradin work at home for want uv help. Strongly urged the abrogashun uv the Burow and the removal uv the Ablishun Postmaster at the Corners."

DEACON M'GRATH

was egsamined. Wuz convinst in his own mind that the Afrikin wuz now out uv his normal speer, and that the infernal Burow wuz at the bottom uv it. The nigger, afore the Burow come around, wuz docile and easily controlled. His boy Joe wuz wunst a model nigger. He'd get up every mornin at 4 a. m. (which means in the thornin, and work every day till after dark. Ez soon ez he wuz emancipated ez they called it, and the Burow come I told him to get up one morning, and he told me impudently that he'd concluded he wooden't. I undertook to chastise him with a fence stake, whereupon he sailed in and whaled me, and the Burow to which I applied for redress left in my face. He left, and is now dragin out a miserable existence in Ohio, on the beggarly pittance uv $2 a day, and my farm is runnin to weeds. He concluded uv given it, ez his solemn opinion that he never could be reconciled to the Government so long ez the Burow wuz tolerated, and that Ablishnist held the Post Office at the Corners.

GEN. DIMGIS

considered the Burow an iekubus upon the State. It interfered between master and servant. Could get along better of the nigger was left to the natural laws which regulates capital and labor. Tried to keep his niggers, and did keep em the past Summer till after the crop was in, and then tried to settle with em for four dollars a month, with such deductions for food, sickness and brakin tools et settery, ez was just. Brought the niggers all uv em in my debt, and generously proposed to let em work it out shippin corn, wood, doorin the winter. Hauled me up afore the Burow, and wuz forst to pay em each $15 per month. Consider the Burow ez all that stands in the way uv rokonstruction, though the removal uv the Ablishun Postmaster at the Corners and the appointment uv a sound constitooshnel Dimokrat wood greatly assist in conciliatin the Kentucky mind.

I tried to get some nigger testimony, but cood elicit nothin worth while. One nigger who spends the helf uv his time at the Corners wuz opposed to the Burow, becoz it stopt rations on him, and Lucy, a octoroon, who formerly belonged to and still resides with Elder Cavitt (who is now absent as a delegate to a Southern religious convention at Louisville), testified that the Burow was no great shakes becoz ez the Elder wuz a widower and the father of all her children and bein she was a free woman, askt the agent to make the Elder marry her, and he wood'nt do it. But sich evidence is irrelevant, and I didn't consider it at all worth while bothern your Eggslency with it. Both, however, strongly insisted on the removal uv the Ablishun Postmaster at the Corners.

BELSUM PETTUS.

was convinced the Burow wuz agin the prosperity uv the South, and was underminin the moral and physikle welfare uv the nigger. It made him impudent. Bex sum uv em workin for him, and noticed at the time and em with a spellin book and a reader. Didn't believe in readin. Cood not read himself, but hed a cousin wunst who learned, but pp soon ez he cood read he moved off to Indianny, quit the Democrisy, and became a Ablitsum Ablishnist. Feered he wuz killed in the war, and served him rite. Wanted to know what we would do when the niggers cood all read. Sposed we het to learn em to office, ez the people allus selected sich when they cood find em. Didn't believe in nigger equality, and was in favor uv extensive changes in the post office at the Corners.

Captain McHeather thought things had come to a purty pass when a man could not lather a nigger without being hauled up afore a Burow.

Hon. Reub Hoyle thought if your Burow hed good witness the corrupshun that exsisted in the Burow you'd be shore to fix it.

Why, he whipped a nigger bad more than he ought, perhaps, and he did'nt pay the injuries. It was an aggravated case. The nigger was sassy, and it cost $81 to provide for his family. That infamous Burow made me pay for their rashons all winter. He asked me indignantly if this wuz or wuz not a free kentry into wich such things wuz permitted. And the Ablishun Postmaster at the Corners approved the tyrannikle action.

You may hev noticed the singular unanimity with which they all bro testimony to the necessity uv a change in the Postorfis at the Corners. I endorse all they say on this question, konsiderin that that change is ez necessary in the grate work uv pacifyin and consolidatin az iz the removal uv the Burow. In enso a change is made, I would say for your guidance that I hev bin warmly solicited to accept the positior, and to pacify em, hev at last yielded a reluctant consent. The fact that I never served in the Confederate army may be an objection, but to offset that I voted for Vallandygum.

With sentiments uv the most profound respek, I am

Truly yours,
PETROLEUM V. NASBY,
Late Pastor of the Church of the New Dispensashun.

DR. E. COURTARET'S DISINFECTING FLUIDS. Secured by Letters Patent in the United States and France. Prepared solely by the New York Disinfecting Company, at their Laboratory, Nos. 298, 300, and 302 Henry Street, N.Y. Office, 42 Pearl Street.

The Company, organized on a permanent basis, with Dr. Courtaret, the celebrated French Chemist, in charge of its Laboratory, is prepared to furnish its DISINFECTING FLUIDS for sick rooms, nurseries, hospitals, water closets, privies, sewers, gutters, ships, railroads, hospitals, prisons, and public institutions of all kinds, sugar-houses, offal and fat-boiling establishments, all kinds of manures (immensely increasing the value of the latter in every manner), and wherever offensive gases exist. These agents are the poisoning and antiseptics, antiputrescents, and disinfectants in the scientific meaning of the words, to deodorizers, which not only remove noxious gases and odors by chemical principles—leaving in their places healthful influences—but are DESTROYERS; and not merely absorbent of obnoxious gases. They are used by the sewerage commissioners, under the direction of the Sanitary Police of the Metropolitan Health Department New York.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Augusta, June 6, 1866.

To Municipal Authorities:

A CONSTRUCTION has been placed upon the blank applications for State Pension, to which it is perhaps liable, though by no means intended, as will appear by the instructions accompanying the blanks, that every party applying shall declare upon oath or affirmation, that he or she is not a pauper. To correct this, in all cases in which persons applying are not receiving aid, either public or private, the third paragraph of the application signed by the proposed beneficiary, which declares the inability in the second line, should be changed by striking out the words "am," and "and continue to," so that line will read "obtain a livelihood for myself and those dependent upon me, and shall be compelled to," &c.

The object of this law is to relieve those who may be paupers, and prevent others from becoming so, and will be so administered.

EPHRAIM FLINT, Secretary of State.

Notice to the Public!

In the year 1836, the writer embarked in the Drug Business in the city of Philadelphia, and while thus engaged, made several experiments in regard to the most desirable mode of preparing Fluid Extracts.—My efforts in this respect—the articles being approved and used by the Medical Faculty—I was desirous of placing them before the public, but hesitated for some time before concluding to resort to newspaper advertising, knowing the prejudice that existed in many minds against using advertised Medicines or Nostrums, but through the advice of friends and those who had used them this objection was overcome.

After 18 years' exertion, commencing in a small way, the sale of my articles has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout foreign countries—and this in the face of much opposition. Every means has been resorted to by unprincipled dealers since their merit and success became known—such as offering large bottles at less price, denouncing all other preparations, and even copying my advertisements—but I am happy to state that out of the many who have resorted to this, none have been successful.

MY OBJECT

in this notice is to make facts known to the public and respectable dealers, believing after so many years' exertions, that the Druggists will discountenance such proceedings, and that the reputation of my articles may not be damaged by use of inferior or spurious ones.

Knowing that many may read the article who are unacquainted with me, I append a few remarks from those of my native city, and whose names are known in all parts of the world:

Being personally acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold, it affords me pleasure to state I have been most favorably impressed with his energy and integrity, and gratified at his success.

WM. WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Bowers & Weightman,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[Evening Bulletin, Philadelphia.]

"When on a visit to the city of New York a few days since, I was induced to call on our old friend and townsman Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist, 594 Broadway, whose store is a model—a perfect Gem—the handsomest of any kind we have ever had the pleasure of viewing, and so extensive, being 54 feet front, five stories in height, and over 200 feet deep. Indeed it affords us much pleasure to know that he has been so successful, and in so ample evidence of the merits of his Articles—as in our whole business experience we have not known of the success of any articles without Merit—advertising merely bringing them before the people."

[Boston Herald

"We do not like to advertise worthless wares, or articles calculated to deceive readers; and when we see an advertiser like Mr. Helmbold, who we have known for years, gradually extend his advertising from year to year until he becomes the largest advertiser in this United States, we are satisfied that the statements in regard to his articles must be correct."

The writer reluctantly inserts the above, and would not do so were he a stranger to many; and concludes by stating the name is Helmbold, and the diseases for which they have been used by many thousands with complete success.

[ADVERTISEMENT.]

HELMBOLD'S

Fluid Extract of Sarsaparilla

HIGHLY CONCENTRATED.

One bottle equivalent in strength to one gallon of the Syrup or Decoction.

It resolves the seat of the disease immediately, expelling all HUMORS of the BLOOD.

And Beautifying the Complexion.

These articles, being of such strength, the dose is exceedingly small. From this fact, it is used in the United States Army Hospitals and public Sanitary Institutions throughout the land.

☞ Cut out the advertisement and send for it, and by this means avoid Counterfeits.

☞ To insure the genuine, cut the coupon.

☞ Ask for Helmbold's. Take no other!
